

LITE SYSTEM

Entrymaster™

Competition Management Solutions

Entrymaster LITE is FREE

Suitable for any size and type of horsey event from Pony Clubs, Riding Clubs, large shows to fun rides and non horsey ticketed events.

- Entrymaster is committed to offering a service every organisation can afford.
- We don't just process entries, you can add postal details FREE of charge and produce reports you require.
- There's less paper to process and share secretarial duties if you request more than one login to your entry page.
- Offer all your customers the choice of paying by post or online for the same cost.
- Use social media to spread details of your event and entries online
- You control your own finances as all monies go straight to your account. Internationally renown, your customers are at ease using Paypal as they can pay by either debit or credit card as a visitor or their Paypal account.

No set up charge
No monthly fees
No license fee

We charge you a flat fee of 50 pence per transaction, the only other cost is the fee paid to your payment provider ie Paypal who charge around 1.4-3%. You can add your own booking fee to each customer sale if you want to, so you can easily offset these charges. Typically online entries will be more cost effective than paying postage, buying an envelope and paying bank charges as well as making your organisation look more professional and save secretaries time.

You can add all your postal entries FREE and produce reports for each class and competitor details for your customer database.

Entrymaster™

Competition Management Solutions

The ultimate resource to manage, promote and organise events

Entrymaster Equine

Great system. Very easy to use, even by me whis is not good with technology.

It really is the easiest online entry system I have ever used.

Tailored specifically to our requirements. Entrymaster has been a resounding success for us.

Entrymaster is an online software system that will be branded with your logo to become a seamless connection with existing website.

How does it work?

Entrymaster has been created to be as easy as possible to set up and use . . . It takes just 5 easy steps:

- 1 Register with us
- 2 Set up event details
- 3 Add sections and classes
- 4 Add any additional extras
- 5 Go Live - funds go straight to your own account

Features & Benefits

The Entrymaster software offers an incredible wealth of features and benefits that make the entire process of event organisation much easier.

Entrymaster not only provides a simple, step by step online process for the entrant to register and submit their details, it also offers an easy to use, comprehensive administration solution for organisers.

The software has been created as an easy to use website, branded with your logo, which becomes a seamless and integral part of your existing website. You events page will connect easily to social media, ensure you build your customer database, collects subscriptions, takes secure payments, allows you to collect sponsorship and even sell merchandise using an efficient, simple process.

Entrymaster contains a wealth of features and benefits, these can be tailored to suit the bespoke needs of any organisation. We also offer an optional full event management service for processing all online and postal entries including a PO Box office address. Quotations on request.

All monies collected go straight to your own account.

Some of the many features include:

- Easy creation of event application forms
- Organisers control own events via personal login
- Set dates to accept online entries and add latest information
- Add all postal or phone entries manually
- Add additional options (eg. first aid, merchandise)
- Communicate with registrants via email
- Gain registrant approval for gift aid
- Real-time reporting suite for printing catalogues and event day management
- Allocation of back numbers, entry statements, auto emails and labels
- Link to own entry pages from host website
- Creates printable stewards sheets
- Upload results and share with other qualifying organisations
- Allows you to share secretarial duties from any location
